February 29 is a date that usually occurs every four years, and is called leap day. This day is added to the calendar in leap years as a corrective measure, because the Earth does not orbit the sun in precisely 365 days.

Its LEAP YEAR and It's Time to Clear the Clutter

During the month of February we would like to help you clear your clutter. Some times we just feel the need to de-clutter our homes. While doing so, you might come across a lot of things that you would like to throw/give away. However, there will be a few items that you want to keep, yet do not have the space in your home for them. In such cases, a self-storage unit can offer you a better solution. This way, you can clear your home and still have access to them, at anytime.

After all, it's your life let us help U-Stor-It with confidence.

5 x 5 or 5 x 10's North Sherman Street Only and some Exclusions apply. Will receive 1/2 off the 1st 3 Months. Take advantage of the extra day you get this month because it will be 4 years before it happens again...

Tips for Moving in Wet Weather

Unfortunately, plastic bags will not work for everything that you are moving. For larger items such as furniture and mattresses, we recommend shrink wrapping them so you're prepared for any torrential downpours that could come your way. As for moving boxes, double up on packing tape. The extra tape will water proof the openings and provide extra protection for your belongings. A little extra durability to the boxes will only help if they get wet and soggy. Upon arrival at your new home, make use of your garage if you have one. Transport as much furniture and boxes from the truck to the garage in the shortest distance as possible. The large garage door opening is perfect for a quick transfer as you carry boxes through the rain, without the worry of fitting through a smaller door opening.

If you have access to tarps, or anything that can be used as high head cover, you should set it up before moving your belongings. This will give you some relief from walking through puddles and bringing some of that rain water in the house.

If you must move through the rain and have no head cover at all, map out what you transfer from the truck to the house. Look for things that can get wet like plastic tubes or objects that won't be a problem moving in the rain. Then when the rain slows down, take full advantage of those items that cannot get wet.

As the rain keeps pouring down and the boxes steadily unload, assign someone as the dryer. Have them stand inside with some towels and wipe off your belongings that can't stay wet for an extended period. You could also have rotations of this position so everyone gets a break and takes a fair share of the heavy lifting.
